This post and these comments are inspiring me to be bolder about my valid decisions. In return you will receive a daily motivational e-mail from WorldWithoutWine to keep you on track for 30 days. Just being with myself seemed unbearable. For one spectacularly obvious reason - you did not pass . I had a team lunch today. But I do find that articles like these tend to generate a bit one-sided comments, either from those newly sober who feel sobriety has changed their lives, or from the people who swear they have never had any interest in alcohol whatsoever.
