Artwork is provided by Willem de Rooij, whose series comprises collected images from the Internet displaying the aftermaths of destroyed and looted cultural heritage sites in conflict zones such as Iraq, Mali, Egypt, Syria, and Bosnia-Herzegovina. Ull Hohn Foregrounds, Distances Ull Hohn: Foregrounds, Distances aims not only to offer the first comprehensive overview of his work, but also to contribute to a history of painting-based practices, which occupy a marginal place in the established narratives of the art of the s and s Suzana Milevska Ed. In five episodes, a fictionalized narrative stages the backstage and theatricalizes the social interactions and power games, the aspirations, passions, and everyday realities of the field.

analyses can serve as interpretive interruptions of non-fictional representations of Pakistani-US 'war on terror' relations.

His reading of Household's thrillers as tales of detection similarly underscores concerns that emerged in the late 1970s and 1980s, Welchman poses thoughtful and provocative questions about how these artists receive and negotiate the social and aesthetic histories through which they live and work. Relationships around the artwork as site of evidence and testimony are thus reoriented.
