He would eventually come to keep slaves at the Hermitage, his plantation near Nashville. Even though Swartwout was an old Jackson appointee to whom Van Buren had vigorously objected, and moreover a former Calhoun favorite who was now a Whig, the Democratic administration was put on the defensive. JohnB. Indeed, a few of the Red Fox's closest political advisers had privately urged him to start a foreign war in order to distract public attention from the administration's domestic difficulties.
