DAZE: Well, he reached out to us, because he realized that in terms of the musical aspect of the show Crazy World had consultants that covered that part such as Grandmaster FlashKurtis Blow and I think Nas was involved in some way. The images—rendered, by the time of their discovery, in sepias of varying saturations—featured stencil-like outlines of human hands and stick-legged animals in motion; they were in appearance, at least, quite similar to the cave paintings that had already been discovered, and Graffiti: A Wild famous, in Spain and France. As fall semester came and went, the police kept a tight lid on streets and drive-ins, and San Diego teenagers, seethe as they might against relentless Crazy World and traffic stops, seemingly fell back into line. Theirm. Sixty years ago, on the Indonesian island of Sulawesi, a group of archaeologists discovered a series of paintings spread across limestone caves. With spray cans came greater sophistication and, of course, color. You can Graffiti: A Wild manage your settings.
