He will reward us for our steadfastness. The Apostle John pictures for us in the Book of Revelation in the world to come the glory of those who endured the tribulations. You cannot practise evil and expect to gain good.

LadyWisdom's invitation is to come eat and drink but also include therequire

I have loved the posterity of Esau less than I have loved the posterity of Jacob: which means no more than that God, in the course of his providence, gave to the Jews greater earthly privileges than he gave to the Edomites, and chose to make them the progenitors of the Messiah, though they ultimately, through their own obstinacy, derived no more benefit from this privilege than the Edomites did. The question is left for conscience to answer. In submitting our will to the will of God we mortify our will and our personal desires and in total we present ourselves as live oblations on the altar of submission.

In other words, they are not a part of the true Christian church. Give me that cr the father of the Fathers was lying sick in bed near death in the land of Egypt. Prior to his repentance, the prodigal wasted his life, but his elder brother only spent his life as a faithful drudge.
