Archaeological evidence backs up the truth claims of the Bible; it has "the ring of truth" to it; it's the Word of God;
you just have to believe it on.

While this question is often presented as a deep philosophical puzzle suitable only for the "brainy" to tackle, the answer is not so complex. When the Bible says that God is true, it implies that he truly exists, that he is perfectly truthful in all he says and does, and that he alone knows all reality perfectly and immediately.

However, whenever the Bible makes a statement relating to these sciences, it is true. The Lord Jesus Himself prophesied that God would incarnate in the last days and appear as the Son of man to work. We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

The Bible simply cannot be explained upon any other basis! The Bible presents a coherent theology and worldview and presents this material consistently. Revered by Christians as God's holy Word, the Bible spans centuries of history, contains a variety of literary styles and culminates in the person of Jesus Christ.
