Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! That's why interpretation of Prophecy sometimes is difficult.

It brings me great heartache when those followers, though well meaning, dictate. At least that seems the common opinion among many modern day prophets. In the midst of a great joy, sorrow will come for My poor children.

When we do not choose God as our master, then the Evil One reigns over us. There are three tests of lust, pride, and greed for money or possessions that everyone must face.
